Geospatial Sciences Study Awards

The Geospatial Sciences Study Award program makes up to three awards per year of $1,000 each (subject to available funding) to students pursuing the Master of Science or the Doctor of Philosophy in Geospatial Information Sciences. An award may be held up to a maximum of two consecutive years for masters students or four consecutive years overall for doctoral students subject to periodic review of academic performance. Awards will be based upon:

- An entry level GRE score of 1150 (combined verbal and quantitative) or other equivalent indicators of academic potential, and maintenance of a GPA of at least 3.25
- Acceptance into the Master of Science in Geographic Information Sciences or the Doctor of Philosophy in Geospatial Information Sciences at UTD.
- Demonstrated previous experience with GIS in academic or non-academic environments.
- A long-term career goal which will be facilitated by graduate education in GIS at UTD.
- Resources available from other external sources to support graduate study at UTD.
- A statement of the necessity of such an award to make study at UTD possible.

Questions about applications may be addressed to gis-grad-info@utdallas.edu or by phone at 972-883-6877. Application should be made in a letter, with supporting materials, addressed to the Program Head, Geospatial Information Sciences at the above address.

Decisions regarding awards will be made by the Geospatial Information Sciences Program Committee, or by an awards committee as designated by the GIS Program Committee. Decisions are made by the Committee on an annual basis prior to the commencement of the Fall semester.
